A New Treatment of a Large and Growing Subject

Underhill on Landlord and Tenant

Embracing the Lease (Its Form, Execution, Construction, Assignment, Surrender and Parties to it), Various kinds of Tenancy Created, Rent and its Incidents. Eviction, Destruction of the Premises, Landlord's Negligence, Duty to Repair, Emblements,
: : Fixtures, Etc. : :

By H. C. UNDERHILL, of the New York City Bar, Author of "Wills," "Civil Evidence," "Criminal Evidence," Etc.

This book has been in active preparation for eight years, and is the ripened product of an author well and favorably known to the profession, especially by his work on "Wills," 2 Volumes (1901), which, by common consent, is acknowledged to be the authority upon the subject.

The author considers first—The Parties to a Lease, the Form and Execution of the Lease, and the various Forms of the Relation of Landlord and Tenant, which are Recognized by Law. The Attornment of the Tenant, his Possession and the Rent are then considered. Very full treatment is also given to Fraud as grounds for setting aside a Lease, the Use of the Premises, Tenant's Estoppel and Option to Purchase.

The treatment given is concise and to the point, and at the same time is sufficiently full to give all the law. A full line of American and English cases are cited to the date of going to press. Those cases which have been reversed or overruled are noted. Parallel citations are given to the National Reporter System, L. R. A., Trinity Series, Etc.

It is believed that the members of the profession will welcome the book as a useful and a valuable addition to their law libraries.
