SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

The Wayland Club has elected the following officers for the second half of the third term:

President, Charles Kenneth Wynne, 1910; vice-president, Henry Emmett MacDonald, 1911; secretary, Andrew Jackson Aldridge, Jr., 1912; treasurer, David Joseph McCoy, Special; executive committee, Leo Gallagher, 1910; Leonard Osborn Ryan, 1912; critic, James Dugdale Baird, 1910.

The Kent Club's elections for the rest of the year follow:

President, David Joseph McCoy, Special; vice-president, Clarence William Seymour, 1911; secretary, Hilding Alfred Swanson, 1911; treasurer, Joseph Francis Dutton, 1910; executive committee, John F. Tobin, 1910; Jack King Chung, 1912; critic, Peter Tracy Dondlinger, 1910; assistant critic, Clement Richardson Wood, 1911.

The Wayland Prize debates in the Kent Club were held on May 9. The following competed:

Samuel Reed Dighton, 1911, of Monticello, Ill.
Clarence William Seymour, 1911, of Hartford, Conn.
Isidore Shapiro, Special, of Birmingham.

On April 28 Professor John W. Wetzel delivered a lecture in Hendrie Hall on "Rufus Choate."

'77—Hon. Nathaniel B. Walker recently was re-elected chairman of the Board of Education, of Biddeford, Me.

'85—Stiles Judson was among the speakers at the second annual banquet of the Rocky Hill Club, which was held on Tuesday evening, April 19, at Rocky Hill, Conn.

'02—Augustine Lonergan has been appointed by Mayor Smith a member of the City Plan Commission of Hartford, Conn., for a term of three years.

'04 Sp.—C. W. O'Connor has recently established the American Library Bindery, with offices at 3917 Lancaster Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

'05—Clinton R. Williams has resigned his position with the Lawyers' Title Insurance & Trust Co., to enter the law offices of Pratt, Koehler & Russell, 47 Cedar Street, New York City.
'06—Mr. and Mrs. J. Wirt Randall, of Annapolis, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Arden, to John M. Cates, of Denver, Col. Mr. Cates is assistant general solicitor of the Colorado & Southern Railroad.

'08—John C. Wilkes is engaged in the general practice of law with offices in the Clark Building, Sharon, Pa.

Ex-'08—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew David Baldwin have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Tomlinson, to Walter Mason Pickett, on Tuesday evening, April 26, at Plymouth Congregational Church, New Haven, Conn.

EDWARD N. WILLARD, Ex-'57.

Hon. Edward N. Willard, ex-Judge of the Pennsylvania Superior Court, and one of the most prominent lawyers of the State, died suddenly on March 2, at Scranton. Judge Willard was born in Connecticut in 1835 and spent some time in the Yale Law School. In 1857 he took up his residence in Scranton. During the Civil War he served with distinction in the Union army, and at its close resumed practice in Scranton. In 1895, when the Superior Court was established, Willard was appointed one of the Judges, but he resigned after two years of service. For the last eighteen years he had been at the head of the widely known firm of Willard, Warren & Knapp.