

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

Two articles have been recently published by Professor Charles P. Sherman, '96, of the Law School Faculty: one, "The Indebtedness of Modern Jurisprudence to Medieval Italian Law," in the Canadian Law Times for November; the other, "One Code for All the United States the Only Remedy to Cure American Law of Its Confusion and Uncertainty," in the Green Bag for November.

P. B. Buzzel, a second-year student in the Law School, has recently been elected a director of the Yale Co-op.

'51—Alexander J. Robert has changed his address from 2324 East Hartson Avenue, Spokane, Wash., to P. O. Box 330, Davis, Cal.

'76—Eljen K. Wilcox has been appointed by Mayor Baker director of law for the city of Cleveland, Ohio.

'76—On December 19, Professor Theodore S. Woolsey was named as one of the three permanent members of the park commission of New Haven, Conn., succeeding William W. Farnam, '66, who recently resigned.

'92—William Pope Aiken died on December 15. In 1890 he entered the Yale Law School, receiving honors in Junior year, and his degree, magna cum laude, in 1892. He then spent a year in legal work in Washington, D. C., and afterwards was engaged in the practice of his profession in New York City. Later he spent a year in Albany, N. Y., doing work in connection with the Statutory Revision Committee. In 1898, finding that the strain resulting from his work was beginning to tell upon his nervous system he withdrew to a sanatorium in Burlington, Vt.

'93—On December 5, John W. Banks was re-elected Secretary and Treasurer of the Yale Alumni Association of Fairfield County.

'93—William T. Hincks has been elected Vice-President of the Fairfield County Yale Alumni Association.

'94—Thomas F. Farrell has been appointed a member of the new City Planning Commission of Providence, R. I.

'96—John L. Hall has changed his business address from 60 State Street to 30 State Street, Boston, Mass.

'99—Sixteen members of the Class of '99 L were present at a dinner given last week at the Quinnipiack Club in New Haven, in honor of Judge Edward P. O'Meara of the City Court. Nine members of the Class have attained judgeships since graduation, and this affair was the seventh held in honor of a member's being named as a judge.

'97 and '99—William H. Comley, Jr., has been appointed attorney for the city of Bridgeport, Conn.

'07—Geo. P. Whitman has entered a partnership for the practice of law with offices in the Fourth National Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga.

'09—The present mail address of William E. Greenbaum is Box 781, Manila, P. I.

ex-'10—George Andrews Stone died of diabetes in New Haven, Conn., on October 2. Ever since leaving the Law School he had been engaged in the practice of law in New Haven, which was his home at the time of his death. Two years ago he became a member of the board of aldermen of that place, and was one of the assessors of the borough of Fair Haven, East, also serving as a justice of the peace. He was unmarried, and is survived by his parents.

'11—L. Nelson Tillotson is now associated with Mr. Wilbur C. Bacon for the general practice of law at Suite 1402, Fort Dearborn Building, 105 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Ill. He was formerly located at 35 North Dearborn Street.

'11—Stephen A. Wolongiewicz has been appointed assistant corporation attorney for the city of Schenectady, N. Y.

'13—T. Rufus Tracy has taken a position with the Oliver Typewriter Company, 310 Broadway, New York City.

'13—Stanley P. Mead received the degree of LL.B., magna cum laude, from the Yale Law School last June, and is now engaged in the practice of law with the firm of Bartram & Mead of Stamford, Conn. He may be addressed at 303 Main Street, Stamford, Conn.

'13—James E. McKnight is practicing law in the office of James E. Russell, '88 L., at 77 Bank Street, Waterbury, Conn., which is his permanent address.

'13—Charles E. Clark is practicing law in the office of Judge Livingston W. Cleaveland, '81 L., at 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

'13—Louis B. Zacher is practicing law with the firm of Zacher & Ely at 865 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn.

'13 M. L.—Arthur Reed Dearth died, after an illness of short duration, following an attack of typhoid pneumonia, at Des Moines, Iowa, on December 3. He was born on April 3, 1890, at Dunreath, Iowa, and after spending his boyhood there, attended the Capital City College of Des Moines. Following his course there, in 1908, he entered Drake University, where he received the degree of LL.B. three years later, being admitted to the Iowa bar the same year. He then came to Yale for a one-year course of study and received his M.L. in 1913. He was unmarried, and is survived by his parents, who reside in Des Moines.

The following have been elected non-resident members of the Yale Club, New York: W. A. Johnson, '07, and W. V. M. Robertson, '12.