

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

'76—John W. Wescott, formerly Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Camden County, New Jersey, has been recently appointed Attorney General of the State of New Jersey.

'76—Eljen Kossuth Wilcox died, after a week's illness from pneumonia, at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, on February 3.

'79—Edward D. Robbins, general counsel of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, has been made general counsel of the board of directors of the road.

'83—Henry Charles White died, from intestinal trouble following a protracted period of ill health, in New Haven, Conn., on February 7.

'89—Toshitake Okubo is now first vice-president of the Yale Association in Japan.

'92 M.L.—Professor Hidei Fukuoka has been elected third vice-president of the Yale Association of Japan.

'02—The death of the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gilson occurred in New Haven, Conn., on January 9.

'03—On January 31, President Wilson's appointment of Philip Troup to be postmaster at New Haven, Conn., was confirmed by the Senate.

'04—Henry Cotheal Andrews died, after a long illness, at Fishkill-on-Hudson, N. Y., on January 16.

'04—The marriage of Mary Maud Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Lihme, and Charles Driver Francis took place in New York City, on January 1. They will be at home, after January 20, at 112 West Seventy-second Street, New York City.

ex-'04—Louis Abraham Alexander died at his home in Dorchester, Mass., on December 30.

'05—The engagement is announced of Ethiel H., daughter of Mrs. Frederick Nicklas of New York City, to J. French Miller.

'06—Clarence A. Barnes is a member of the committee of representative college graduates which has been concerned in the organization of the Alumni Social Service Bureau. The aim of this organization is to provide a clearing house for social service work in Boston.

'07—On January 1, Harry Hall Atwater was admitted to membership in the law firm of Clark, Hall & Peck, of which Henry A. L. Hall, '95 L., and George L. Peck, '93 and '95 L., are members. The offices of the firm are in the Second National Bank Building, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

'07—George P. Whitman, formerly of the firm of Felder, Anderson, Coburn & Whitman, has formed a partnership with Messrs. Samuel D. Hewlett and John T. Dennis for the general practice of law under the firm name of Hewlett, Dennis & Whitman, with offices in the Fourth National Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga.

'08—On January 1, Carleton H. Stevens was admitted to membership in the law firm of Clark, Hall & Peck, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

'08—A daughter, Barbara Burton, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Jamison in Albuquerque, N. Mex., on January 8.

'10—The engagement is announced of Katharine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis R. Hatheway of Detroit, Mich., to John H. Lancaster.

'11—A daughter, Minna Jean, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John T. L. Hubbard on January 28.

'11—The son born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Wells Peck in New Rochelle, N. Y., on December 30, 1913, has been named A. Wells, Jr.

Ex-'11—Charles Sudarsky has recently been appointed assistant clerk of the Police Court for the city of Hartford, Conn.

'11—The engagement is announced of Irene Cecilia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Andrew Dasha of Quincy, Mass., to William Joseph Nolan. Miss Dasha was a member of the Class of 1912 at Wellesley.

'11—On January 2, S. Edward Hannestad opened an office for the general practice of law at Lihue, Kauai, H. I.

'11—On February 1, E. Stuart Gill moved his law offices to Rooms 408-409, Temple Court Building, Chattanooga, Tenn.

'12—Edmond A. Clune is now prosecuting attorney for the town of East Hartford, Conn.