

Manuscripts in the Italian Statute Collection,
Yale Law Library

Compiled by Michael Widener,
Rare Book Librarian
May 2016 update

This inventory lists the manuscript statutes in the Yale Law Library's Italian Statute Collection, the largest collection of early Italian statuti outside of Italy. Most of the contents are municipal statutes that govern both civil and criminal matters. A few contain the statutes of guilds (pharmacists of Naples), or statutes covering specific subject areas such as criminal law (Bregaglia Valley), commercial law (Città di Castello, Florence, Montefortino), fishing (Perugia), tariffs (Bologna), or agriculture (Tivoli).

The inventory lists complete manuscripts, as well as printed books with manuscript additions. The printed books have their titles in italics. The arrangement is geographical (usually by city). Entries with the note "Italian Statutes Collection, 1946 (Accession no. 46-209)" are part of the 900-volume collection of Italian statuti acquired by the Yale Law Library in 1946, which the library's 1945-46 annual report describes thus: "The outstanding acquisition of the year was the notable collection of Italian statuta, numbering almost nine hundred volumes, purchased from a learned Italian lawyer who had brought it, over a period of fifty years, to its present completeness."

Sicilian legal documents collection, 1665-1845. 128 items ; 33 cm or smaller.

- A collection of 128 Sicilian printed and manuscript circulars, legal forms, broadside proclamations, letters, and other documents. Many of the documents are associated the town of Sciacca and the city of Agrigento. Collection includes both printed and manuscript materials, primarily printed. The documents concern taxes, regulations on grain and flour, prohibition of card games, tobacco law, criminal law, limitations on funeral extravagance, cattle regulations, public health, and butchers' regulations. The collection is divided into four groups.
- First Group: 11 items dated 1665-1698, each of which was folded for the post at one time, bear sigillographic remains, and contain lawyers' written summaries. Two documents were signed with a rubber stamp of the signature of the Duke of Uzeda, count of Montalban. The earliest document, 1665, is signed by Francesco Gaetano Romano, Duke of Sarmoneta.

- Second Group: 47 items dated 1730-1744. These have been signed by the issuing authorities, often the city or University of Girgenti (Agrigento). The blank spaces in the authority lines are filled in with Girgenti, suggesting that the documents were printed to be circulated in a wider area than Agrigento.
- Third Group: 50 items dated 1728-1790. Many contain manuscript addresses, all to judicial entities in Sciacca. This group also includes several printed legal forms, completed in manuscript.
- Fourth Group: 21 items dated 1801-1845 and similar to the third group. A few of the documents have printed borders and historiated woodcut initials. Some are printed forms completed in manuscript.
