Manuscripts: Authors should send manuscript submissions to yjlh@yale.edu. All manuscripts should be Microsoft Word documents with double-spaced text. Because our review procedure is blind, authors should remove any identifying information from the manuscript. Each author will be notified as soon as a publication decision is made. Authors are personally responsible for the accuracy of their citations. Citations should conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed. 2020). The Yale Journal of Law & the Humanities hopes to provide a forum for scholarly debate and inquiry and welcomes responses to the pieces that it publishes. The views expressed in its published pieces are those of the individual authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial staff of the Journal or of the Yale Law School.

Acknowledgments: The Yale Journal of Law & the Humanities would like to thank the staff at Sheridan, Inc.; Christine Jolly and Chloe Bush in the Office of Student Affairs; and Cesar Zapata of the Lillian Goldman Law Library.
