The YALE LAW & POLICY REVIEW is published twice each year (Fall and Spring) by students of the Yale Law School. Third-class postage paid at New Haven, Connecticut and at other mailing offices.

Publication Policy

The REVIEW provides a multidisciplinary forum for the discussion of contemporary policy and legal issues. Articles reflect a spectrum of concerns ranging from immediate questions of law and policy to basic assumptions about the nature of individuals, groups, and institutions. Commentaries are shorter "opinion" pieces which present innovative critical or analytical viewpoints.

Views expressed in the REVIEW are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the REVIEW'S officers, editors, or other members.

Unsolicited manuscripts, including responses are welcome, and should be submitted in duplicate, double or triple spaced. Please address all submissions to the Editor-in-Chief at the above address. Submitted manuscripts will not be returned unless accompanied by a self-addressed postage paid envelope.

Subscriptions

The REVIEW'S subscription rate is $14.00 domestic and $16.00 foreign. Subscriptions are automatically renewed unless the REVIEW receives a request for cancellation. All requests concerning subscriptions should be addressed to the Subscriptions Editor, Yale Law & Policy Review, at the above address.
