

SYMPOSIUM

A World Less Silent: Celebrating Jay Katz's Contributions to Law, Medicine, and Ethics

393 Foreword

David C. Tolley, M.A.

397 Introductory Remarks—The Healing Wisdom of Jay Katz

Harold Hongju Koh, M.A., J.D.

401 The Uses of Psychoanalysis in Law: The Force of Jay Katz's Example

Robert A. Burt, M.A., J.D.

415 Response—Our Debt to Jay Katz

Elyn Saks, M.Litt., J.D.

425 Response—A More Skeptical Bioethics

Charles Bosk, M.A., Ph.D.

431 Experimentation with Human Beings: Light or Only Shadows?

Alexander M. Capron, LL.B.

451 Response—Reflections on Jay Katz's Legacy

Ruth Faden, Ph.D., M.P.H.

455 Response—Jay Katz: From Harms to Risks

Larry I. Palmer, LL.B.

- 465 The Web of Relations: Thinking About Physicians and Patients
Ellen Wright Clayton, M.D., J.D.
- 479 Response—From Tragedy to Catastrophe: Lawyers and the Bureaucratization of Informed Consent
Alan Meisel, J.D.
- 485 Response—Doctor and Patient: An Unfinished Revolution
Susan M. Wolf, J.D.
- 501 Closing Remarks—Jay Katz: From Adjunct to Core
Guido Calabresi, M.A., LL.B.